Spring Conclave

It is almost time to celebrate the beginning of spring and that means that it is almost time for Spring Conclave! Spring Conclave will be full of fun, and good times. Friday night, May 13, we will have an optional pork chop dinner, movie night, and a cracker barrel.

New Ordeal candidates will start the Pre-Ordeal process Friday night and will finish Saturday afternoon with the Ordeal ceremony. Then they will be recognized at dinner and have their new Ordeal orientation Saturday night.

Saturday during the day, everyone will help get beautiful Camp Mitigwa ready for Summer Camp. This will be a time for you to work hard, but also to have fun and make new friends.

For those Arrowmen who are eligible, we hope that you will complete your Brotherhood. All that you have to do, is write a letter explaining what you have done in the OA, complete your day of service, and go through the ceremony. Letters have been sent to those Arrowmen eligible for Brotherhood.

For those other Arrowmen who are attending this event, we will have various other activities after the work day is done. Anyone can do human foosball, or even play ultimate Frisbee. We hope to see as many of you as possible at this event, because it will be a lot of fun, and worth your while to come to camp for Spring Conclave.

Section Conclave comes back to Camp Mitigwa September 16—18 and the lodge needs your help to put on a fantastic event as well as provide you with knowledge, fun, and fellowship. Mark the date and look for more info on-line and in the next Arrowman Insider.

The National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) will be held next year at Michigan State University. Mitigwa Lodge will leave Sunday, July 29th and return Saturday, August 4. Projected costs are estimated at around $700 per person, but we have no firm numbers yet. Again, look for more information on-line.
