2013-2014 ISSUE 4: FALL FELLOWSHIP EDITION

Fall Fellowship is one of our largest events of the year. Many will go through their Ordeal, some will complete their Brotherhood, a few will be called out for the Vigil Honor, and the chapters and lodge will elect new officers for the upcoming year. For those not going through ceremonies, the weekend is full of fun and fellowship! The trading post will be open, we will have the tower and shooting sports open, as well as the waterfront if the weather permits.

If you have been an Ordeal member for 10 months and meet a few additional requirements, you will have two opportunities to seal your membership in the Order by attaining your Brotherhood.

Brotherhood ceremonies will be held both Friday night and Sunday morning. For more information on Brotherhood membership and to download a scorecard to use in tracking your eligibility, please visit the website. If you need a work day, you will have the opportunity to complete that on Saturday.

We will also hold our annual business meeting to elect new officers on Saturday night following dinner.

The trading post will be open, full of all your favorite Lodge gear. There will also be plenty of opportunities to challenge your fellow members in a variety of games around camp and table-top games in the dining hall.

We will conclude the weekend with our Vigil Honor Callout ceremony, recognizing those members who will become candidates for Vigil Honor membership.

A detailed schedule of events and other information will be posted to our website as soon as they are confirmed.

We hope to see you at Fall Fellowship!
